

PROGRAMMA SEMINAR VERDACHTENVERHOOR

DINSDAG 18 MEI 2004

- 09.00 – 09.30 uur Ontvangst
- 09.30 – 11.00 uur Advanced training on interviewing suspects in Britain
Detective Inspector A. Griffiths, Crime Directorate,
Sussex Police
- 11.00 – 11.30 uur Koffie/thee
- 11.30 – 13.00 uur The national structure and strategy on interviewing suspects and operational support in murder enquiries
Detective Chief Inspector G. Shaw, National Interview Co-ordinator, National Crime and Operations Faculty
- 13.00 – 14.00 uur Lunch
- 14.00 – 15.30 uur Interviewing vulnerable suspects/suspects with learning disabilities
Detective Inspector K. Marlow, South-Wales
Police

15.30 – 16.00 uur	Koffie/thee
16.00 – 18.00 uur	False confessions, psychological vulnerabilities, and police pressure Prof. G.H. Gudjonsson, Professor of Forensic Psychology, King's College, London
18.00 – 18.30 uur	Snack
18.30 – 19.30 uur	Valse bekentenissen in Nederland Prof. Dr. P.J. van Koppen, NSCR Leiden, VU Amsterdam, Universiteit van Maastricht
19.30	Diner

WOENSDAG 19 MEI 2004

- 09.00 – 10.00 uur False confessions, psychological vulnerabilities, and police pressure
Prof. G.H. Gudjonsson, Professor of Forensic Psychology, King's College, London
- 10.00 – 10.30 uur Koffie/thee
- 10.30 – 12.30 uur Why professionals fail to catch liars and how they can improve
Prof. A. Vrij, Professor of Applied Social Psychology, University of Portsmouth
- 12.30 – 13.30 uur Lunch
- 13.30 - 14.30 uur Psychologists' contributions to enhancing the interviewing of suspects in England and Wales
Prof. R.H. Bull, Professor of Forensic Psychology, University of Leicester
- 14.30 – 15.00 uur Koffie/thee
- 15.00 – 16.00 uur vervolg Prof. R.H. Bull
- 16.00 – 16.15 uur evaluatie en afsluiting